

PORTFOLIO

KARIM RAHOMA

"I met Karim a few years ago at the Venice Film Festival, when he started to attend it as a professional photographer. Since the beginning, I was impressed by the quality and originality of his photos. They are not like the usual ones that we can see reproduced in the media thousands of times.

... His portraits do not merely settle for giving the viewer a nice representation of a character: they try to reveal its soul. I think this is the best praise you can address to a portrait photographer. Karim is one of the best."
